

Noil The Lion Becomes A Rock Star

by Hari Kandiah

One day Noil the lion was going on a walk and then he heard some music. He thought he had heard it before. When he got home, he was just lying on the bed and he fell asleep. When he was sleeping, he had a dream. It was about the music he heard earlier. He was at school and the teacher was asking everyone what they wanted to do when they got older and Noil heard his voice saying, "I want to be a rock star".

Then Noil woke up and as soon as he got up, he got dressed and waited for a whole hour because he had arrived at the job centre too early without any breakfast.

At last the people who worked there arrived and Noil said, "I would like a job as a rock star please"

The person replied, "Of course you can have a job as rock star but you have to sign this form first," and held out a form, which probably needed twenty thousand signatures.

After a long hour Noil finally got it all signed and in no time gathered a crew and started singing with his band which was called The Nub and sang and played for days and nights, weeks and months. Finally they had a hit single and were noticed everywhere they went. One day they went to town and everybody respected them.

They sang their songs and it all went really well and they lived there forever.
