ELMBRIDGECHOIR

Delighting audiences and raising funds for good causes in Elmbridge and beyond since 2005, the 90+ members of Elmbridge Choir, under the watchful eye of MD Hugh Beckwith, aim for their concerts to entertain and appeal to all, and this year's summer offering will not disappoint! From Abba and the Bee Gees to John Rutter, via a Maori love song and a sublime spiritual, to toe-tapping favourites from much-loved musicals - truly, there'll be something for everyone!

The bar will be open before and after the concert, so bring families and friends, and join us for a glorious summer's evening of light choral music!

Hugh is currently studying for his Masters Degree at Guildhall School of Music and Drama in vocal performance, having completed his BA (Hons) Music at University of Manchester in 2018. He has led numerous vocal groups including the Magna Carta Chorus and Thameside Harmony Chorus and, later this year, will be leading the Vine Singers. As a Tenor soloist, Hugh is much in demand; he has appeared in a number of BBC Radio 3 and 4 broadcasts and has performed at the English National Opera and the Royal Opera, and with the Genesis Sixteen Choir. He is currently performing in the chorus with Opera Holland Park.
